MEDIA BUREAU ANNOUNCES FILING OF PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RULING BY MATRIX CAPITAL MANAGEMENT MASTER FUND, L.P. AND PERMIT-BUT-DISCLOSE EX
PARTE STATUS FOR THE PROCEEDING

MB Docket No. 16-418

Comments Due: January 23, 2017
Replies Due: February 7, 2017

Matrix Capital Management Master Fund, L.P. (Matrix Master Fund) has filed a petition for declaratory ruling (Petition) pursuant to Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and the Pandora Declaratory Ruling.¹ Matrix Master Fund seeks a ruling permitting it to increase its non-controlling voting and equity interest in Pandora Media, Inc. (Pandora Media), the parent corporation of Commission licensee Pandora FM LLC (Pandora FM),² from 9.877 percent to 14.99 percent.³ The Pandora Declaratory Ruling permits foreign ownership of Pandora Media in excess of the 25 percent benchmark of Section 310(b)(4), subject to certain conditions, including prior Commission approval for, inter alia, "any individual foreign investor or 'group' acquiring a greater than five percent voting or equity interest (or ten percent for certain institutional investors) in Pandora Media."⁴ To the extent necessary, Matrix Master Fund also requests approval for Pandora Media to exceed the 49.99 percent aggregate equity and/or voting foreign ownership limitation set out in the Pandora Declaratory Ruling.

In its Petition, Matrix Master Fund states that it is a limited partnership organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands, with a primary business purpose of investing in U.S. securities. It is ultimately controlled by David Goel (Goel), a U.S. citizen,⁵ through a series of intervening entities that are organized under

⁵ Goel is also a citizen of Canada. In addition to the proposed interest via Matrix Master Fund, Goel holds a 0.113 percent interest in Pandora Media through Matrix Capital Management Fund II, L.P. Matrix Master Fund states that, in Delaware law and owned and controlled by U.S. citizens. Specifically, the sole general partner of Matrix Master Fund is Matrix Institutional Advisers, LP (Matrix Institutional), a Delaware limited partnership that holds 100 percent of the voting rights, and less than 1 percent of the equity, in Matrix Master Fund. The sole general partner of Matrix Institutional is Matrix Capital Management GP, LLC (Matrix GP), a Delaware limited liability company, which holds 100 percent of its voting rights and less than one percent of its equity. The sole member of Matrix GP is David Goel. Matrix Capital Management Company, LP (Matrix Management), a Delaware limited partnership, has the authority to determine how the stock held by Matrix Master Fund in Pandora Media is voted. The sole general partner of Matrix Management is Matrix GP. There are seven uninsulated partners in Matrix Institutional and Matrix Management, all U.S. citizens: David Goel, David Semenza, Jeff Courey, Ben Balbale, Tim Frechette, Pavlo Chikosh, and Chris Johnson. According to Matrix Master Fund, all of the limited partners in Matrix Master Fund are fully insulated from attribution in accordance with the insulation criteria set out in the Commission's broadcast attribution rules.

As a non-controlling minority shareholder, Matrix Master Fund asserts that it will not have the ability to significantly influence the management or operations of Pandora FM. Matrix Master Fund contends that permitting it to "modestly increase its non-controlling minority stake" in Pandora Media will further the Commission's goal of facilitating investment in the broadcast industry.⁶ Matrix Master Fund states that, given the ultimate U.S. ownership of Matrix Master Fund, grant of the requested declaratory ruling will not increase the likelihood of foreign influence or control of Pandora Media, nor will it raise any concerns related to national security, law enforcement, foreign policy, or trade policy.

The Petition has been found, on initial review, to be acceptable for filing. The Commission may require Matrix Master Fund to submit additional documents or statements of fact that in its judgment may be necessary. The Commission also reserves the right to return the Petition if, on further examination, it is determined to be defective and not in conformance with its Rules and policies.

EX PARTE STATUS OF THIS PROCEEDING

Pursuant to 47 CFR § 1.1200(a), the Commission may adopt modified ex parte procedures in situations where doing so would serve the public interest. We announce that this procedure will be governed by the permit-but-disclose ex parte procedures that are applicable to non-restricted proceedings under Section 1.1206 of the Commission's Rules.⁷

Permit-but-disclose ex parte procedures permit interested parties to make ex parte presentations to the Commissioners and Commission employees and require that these presentations be disclosed in the record of the relevant proceeding. Persons making a written ex parte presentation to the Commissioners or Commission employees must file the written presentation with the Commission's Secretary no later than two business days after the presentation.⁸ Persons making oral ex parte presentations must file a summary of the presentation no later than the next business day after the presentation.⁹ All ex parte filings must be clearly

Parties are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must contain the presentation's substance and not merely list the subjects discussed.¹⁰ More than a one or two sentence description of the views and arguments presented is generally required.¹¹

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Petition and all further filings will be available in the Commissions Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) under MB Docket 16-418. As of this date, all pleadings, comments and other filings are to be made in ECFS in MB Docket 16-418. Persons and entities that file comments become parties to the proceeding. They may participate fully in the proceeding, including seeking access to any confidential and/or highly confidential information that may be filed under a protective order.

To allow the Commission to consider fully all substantive issues in as timely and efficient a manner as possible, commenters should raise all issues in their initial filings. New issues may not be raised in responses or replies. A party or interested person seeking to raise a new issue after the pleading cycle has closed must show good cause why it was not possible for it to have raised the issue previously. Submissions after the pleading cycle has closed that seek to raise new issues based on new facts or newly discovered facts should be filed within 15 days after such facts are discovered. Absent such a showing of good cause, any issues not timely raised may be disregarded by the Commission.

All filings concerning matters referenced in this Public Notice should refer to MB Docket No. 16-418.

Under the Commission's current procedures for the submission of filings and other documents,¹² submissions in this matter may be filed electronically through the Commission's ECFS or by hand delivery to the Commission.

- If filed by ECFS,¹³ comments shall be sent as an electronic file via the Internet to <http://fjallfoss.fcc.gov/ecfs2/>. In completing the transmittal screen, commenters should include their full name, U.S. Postal Service mailing address, and the applicable docket number.
- If filed by paper, the original and one copy of each filing must be filed by hand or messenger delivery, by commercial overnight courier, or by first-class or overnight U.S. Postal Service mail. All filings must be addressed to the Commission's Secretary, Office of the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission. All hand-delivered or messenger-delivered paper filings for the Commission's Secretary must be delivered to FCC Headquarters at 445 12th St., SW, Room TW-A325, Washington, D.C. 20554. The filing hours at this location are 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. All hand deliveries must be held together with rubber bands or fasteners. Any envelopes must be disposed of before entering the building. Commercial overnight mail (other than U.S. Postal Service Express Mail and Priority Mail) must be sent to 9300 East Hampton Drive, Capitol Heights, MD 20743. U.S. Postal Service first-class, Express Mail, and Priority Mail must be addressed to 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554.
